GULF PLACE
Creative, casual and colorful, Gulf Place is a go-to destination for those looking to add variety to their vacation. Visit this lively beach neighborhood to enjoy shopping, dining, art and plenty of time outdoors. Energize with a refreshing swim at the Ed Walline Regional Beach Access, a game of tennis, or a jog along the Timpoochee Trail.

WATERCOLOR
Enjoy an active vacation in WaterColor, a beach neighborhood designed for those who like to get out and go. Take a hike along a nature trail, tour the area by bike, watch the butterflies at the Secret Bay Park or pack a picnic to enjoy on the beach. Rent stand-up paddleboards at The Boathouse and glide along the calm waters of a dune lake.

SEASIDE
In the colorful neighborhood of Seaside, you’ll feel immediately at ease – here, most people get around by bike or by foot. Airstream trailer food trucks serve BBQ, gourmet grilled cheese, shaved ice and more; just down the road you’ll find cozy cafés and a specialty market. Experience the breathtaking beauty of Seaside while you walk along its sugar-white sand; or, grab a seat at a restaurant patio for a perfect beach sunset view.

SEAGROVE
Discover the charm of Seagrove, a beach neighborhood beloved by locals and guests. Lush oak trees, magnolias, and pines have spread deep roots in Seagrove – and so have long-time visitors. Laid-back but luxurious, Seagrove is a place that embraces variety. From upscale boutiques to casual cafés, this beach neighborhood offers a little bit of everything – including two rare coastal dune lakes, a state park, and sugar-white sand.

ROSEMARY BEACH
Rosemary Beach’s breathtaking scenery and inviting atmosphere draw in beach lovers, art enthusiasts and foodies from around the world. Discover award-winning architecture, acres of pristine natural land and some of the area’s most highly rated restaurants. Against Rosemary Beach’s sophisticated backdrop, there’s plenty to do and see.

SEACREST
This easygoing beach neighborhood is the perfect place to escape for a beach vacation. Spend a day wandering through the shops and sights of Seacrest – you’ll spot everything from gorgeous dune lakes to gourmet restaurants. Then, unwind with a stroll along Seacrest’s sugar-white sand.

ALY'S BEACH
Discover a carefully crafted world in Aly’s Beach. This beach neighborhood boasts striking architecture, boutique shopping and delicious dining – all of which are perfect accompaniments to the white sand and turquoise water just steps away. From its signature white buildings and palm trees to secluded courtyards and a 20-acre nature preserve, Aly’s Beach offers a breathtaking escape from everyday life.

WATERCOLOR
WaterSound's classic, all-American style mixes the colors and shapes of an Eastern seaboard town with the beauty of South Walton beaches. This private community offers hiking and biking trails, breathtaking scenery and a variety of restaurants, shops and natural retreats. Stay in a maritime-inspired cottage or a modern condo with beachfront views. Enjoy live music and outdoor movies under the stars.

INLET BEACH
Relax in pristine Inlet Beach, where a quiet neighborhood lays claim to the largest beach access point in South Walton, boutique shopping and a variety of dining gems. With sweeping sand dunes and stretches of sugar-white sand, Inlet Beach is cool, casual and comfortable. Simply pack a beach chair, sunscreen and a good book to enjoy your stay in this low-key beach neighborhood.

INLET BEACH
Inlet Beach is one of South Walton’s original beach neighborhoods – and originality is something this community celebrates. Bathing with life, Inlet Beach is home to art galleries, quirky restaurants and lively bars. Not only do foodies and art enthusiasts enjoy this beach neighborhood, it’s also home to adventurers who crave the all-natural beauty of Inlet Beach State Park.

SEASIDE
This easygoing beach neighborhood is the perfect place to escape for a beach vacation. Spend a day wandering through the shops and sights of Seacrest – you’ll spot everything from gorgeous dune lakes to gourmet restaurants. Then, unwind with a stroll along Seacrest’s sugar-white sand.

GRAYTON BEACH
Grayton Beach is one of South Walton’s original beach neighborhoods – and originality is something this community celebrates. Bathing with life, Grayton Beach is home to art galleries, quirky restaurants and lively bars. Not only do foodies and art enthusiasts enjoy this beach neighborhood, it’s also home to adventurers who crave the all-natural beauty of Grayton Beach State Park.

ROSEMARY BEACH
Rosemary Beach’s breathtaking scenery and inviting atmosphere draw in beach lovers, art enthusiasts and foodies from around the world. Discover award-winning architecture, acres of pristine natural land and some of the area’s most highly rated restaurants. Against Rosemary Beach’s sophisticated backdrop, there’s plenty to do and see.

INLET BEACH
Relax in pristine Inlet Beach, where a quiet neighborhood lays claim to the largest beach access point in South Walton, boutique shopping and a variety of dining gems. With sweeping sand dunes and stretches of sugar-white sand, Inlet Beach is cool, casual and comfortable. Simply pack a beach chair, sunscreen and a good book to enjoy your stay in this low-key beach neighborhood.

ALY'S BEACH
Discover a carefully crafted world in Aly’s Beach. This beach neighborhood boasts striking architecture, boutique shopping and delicious dining – all of which are perfect accompaniments to the white sand and turquoise water just steps away. From its signature white buildings and palm trees to secluded courtyards and a 20-acre nature preserve, Aly’s Beach offers a breathtaking escape from everyday life.

WATERCOLOR
WaterSound's classic, all-American style mixes the colors and shapes of an Eastern seaboard town with the beauty of South Walton beaches. This private community offers hiking and biking trails, breathtaking scenery and a variety of restaurants, shops and natural retreats. Stay in a maritime-inspired cottage or a modern condo with beachfront views. Enjoy live music and outdoor movies under the stars.

GRAYTON BEACH
Grayton Beach is one of South Walton’s original beach neighborhoods – and originality is something this community celebrates. Bathing with life, Grayton Beach is home to art galleries, quirky restaurants and lively bars. Not only do foodies and art enthusiasts enjoy this beach neighborhood, it’s also home to adventurers who crave the all-natural beauty of Grayton Beach State Park.
SEASCAPE

SANDESTIN

DUNE ALLEN

SANTA ROSA BEACH

GULF PLACE

BLUE MOUNTAIN BEACH

GRAYTON BEACH

WATERCOLOR

SEASIDE

SEACREST

ALYS BEACH

ROSEMARY BEACH

INLET BEACH

GULF of MEXICO

CHOCTAWHATCHEE BAY

MIRAMAR BEACH

Visit Miramar Beach and make your way through one of South Walton’s most diverse neighborhoods. From antique shopping to beach volleyball, this vibrant beach neighborhood has something for everyone. This active beach neighborhood boasts the nation’s first YOLO Board store as well as a driving range, fitness studios, tennis courts and more than three miles of walking trails.

SEASCAPE

Variety is the name of the game in Seascapes, where the number of activities at your fingertips is only rivaled by the number of ways to relax. If you like to stay busy, stay in Seascapes. With eight lighted tennis courts, multiple bike trails, a championship golf course and a full-scale fitness facility, this beach neighborhood is full of “beyond the beach” activities.

SANDESTIN

Explore thousands of acres of beach, accommodations, pools, tennis courts, golf courses and more in Sandestin— one of South Walton’s most active, family-friendly beach neighborhoods. This beach neighborhood is known for its fun atmosphere and variety of options for groups at places like Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort and Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa.

DUNE ALLEN

This beach neighborhood boasts three coastal dune lakes, which are extremely rare bodies of water found in only a handful of places across the world. Dune Allen also offers more than five miles of breathtaking trails in Topsail Hill Preserve State Park— making it a dream destination for nature lovers and accompliners. Come unwind and relax in this laid-back beach neighborhood.